

This book is part of the Ikpigittiarlugik Nuna Imarlu reading series, developed by the Department of Environment in Nunavut. The Ikpigittiarlugik Nuna Imarlu reading series is a unique, Nunavut-developed literacy initiative that infuses environmental stewardship, hunting practices, and knowledge of Nunavut's land and sea into a culturally appropriate reading program.

The Ikpigittiarlugik Nuna Imarlu reading series was developed to support the reading level guidelines outlined in Uqalimaariuqsaniq, the Department of Education's Inuktitut guided reading program. Uqalimaariuqsaniq is a sequential and progressive Inuktitut reading program that supports students in their development as readers.
